Dear Mette and Aurélien
CONGRATULATION on your wedding

You know how much we care about you both and wish you the all best.

All the girls standing up are Mette's lovely girlfriends. We know Mette from either from home, primary school, high school or university.

Throughout the years, we have all learned Mette's wonderful sides, as well as her crazy sides.

- We for example all know how she HATES when people drink or eat loudly. She gets those crazy eyes.. Just standing in silence.. Staring at you until you stop...
- That she was sleeping with here teddy bear, called Elle, until she was 25....

- That she for many years bought shoes which were too small as she was in denial of her real shoesize... likely 42...
- And that she back in the days often brought her own homemade sandwich to the night clubs, to eat AT the club when she got hungry

We've all followed Aure & Mette closely since they met at the night club ZEN. The to-go place for Mette, where she knew the bouncers by their first name.

Some of us were in fact at the night club the night Mette and Aure meet each other, for the first time back in 2012.

Aurélien, we dont know if it was her dancemoves or her face covered in sandwich that made you fall for her that night... but we are happy that you decided to come to Zen

So, she could meet this guy called Aurélien
This French guy who, when he gets drunk at the nightclubs, likes to touch the head of other men with no hair on...

Well, we could be standing up here all night, talking about how amazing you both are....

However, given we're about to hit the floor, we're gonna have a fast little competition instead which involves Mette and Aurélien competing against each other.

... AND all you lovely guests will be involved as well.

On each table you'll find an image of Mette and one of Aurélien, that you have to use to indicate who you are voting for.

Once a question have been presented and you agree at your table (15 sec), you'll hold up the face of whom you're voting for.

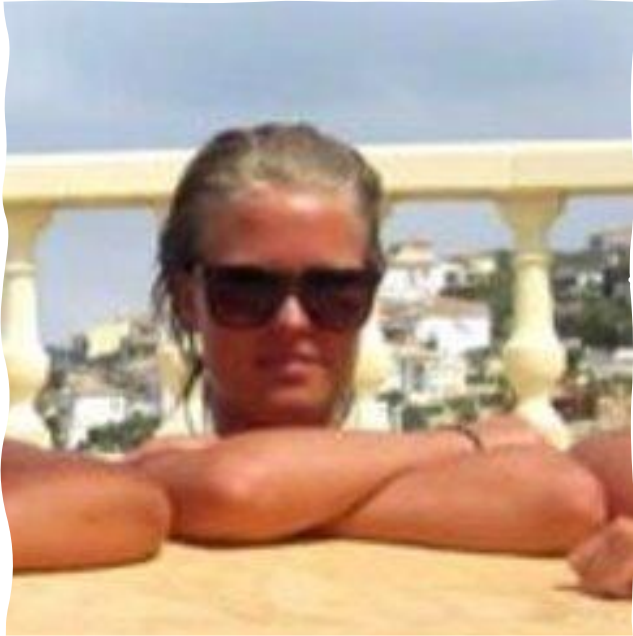

Mette and/or Aurélien gets a point if they answer the same, as the majority of the guest votes.

Mette & Aurélien... Please join us up here on "the stage"

Mette versus Aurélien

Denmark against France

Question 1

Who is worst at planning ?

Q1: Who is the worst at planning ?

Aurélien has always been the one planning their vacations in the Skovbo-Chabannier family.

And IF Mette, on rare occasions is taken on that role of booking flights and planning a vacation, Aurélien have always been double checking all the details to ensure everything is in order.

Q1: Who is the worst at planning ?

However, that doesn't mean he is flawless... probably just means he doesn't trust Mette abilities.

But first, Mette and Aurélien, who do you think is worst at planning ?.....

Q1: Who is the worst at planning ?

We of course, have a few examples why we completely understand that Aurélien do not trust Mette's planning skills..

Mette

Line and Caroline clearly remember the first one... They were flying home from a weekend tour to London, and Mette had told them which airport they were flying home from – which they trusted, and for the first time didn't doublecheck. Which of course resulted in them going to the wrong airport, so they had to buy new tickets

Another time was when Mette and I had lunch and wine at the airport. Even though we had checked-in we missed the flight, cause Mette - as the ticket holder - had misread the time of departure. So when we went to the gate, we found out our flight has left. In what way she misread, I'm not sure, but it was not my fault

Aurélien

Though Aurélien.. You have been good at missing flights too...

Last time you missed your flight was when you were actually going to your bachelor party with the boys.

You, of course didn't know that... You thought it was a work meeting, despite several attempts from Mette telling you that this was a very important flight.

Aurélien

So, You came late in the airport that day and missed your flight to France, almost returning home again, until Charlie called and told you why you had to get on the next plain!

If it is bad planning, being a time optimist or a tendency to be a bit distracted every now and then... We don't know

Q1: Who is the worst at planning ?

So dear guests, now it is your turn to vote..

From these stories and your own experience
Who has the worst planning skills? Mette or Aurélien? Please vote

Question 2

Who has the worst fashion style?

Q2: Who has the worst fashion style?

When it comes to fashion, Mette and Aurélien definitely see things a little differently.

They've got their own unique ideas about what looks cool.

And let me tell you, they're not shy about telling each other what they think

Q2: Who has the worst fashion style?

Before we see some serious runway poses we need to ask Mette and Aurelien:

Between the two of you, who do you think have the worst style ?

Q2: Who has the worst fashion style?

Dear guest.. Look closely at the pictures of tonight's fashion icons ... and place your votes afterwards

tonight's competition

Question 3

Who has the best cultural knowledge?

Q3 Who has the best cultural knowledge?

When Aurélien and Mette first crossed paths, Mette went all out to impress him. She wanted to show how fascinated, smart, and super interested in history and culture she was.

And boy, did Aurélien take her on a historical tour of her life, showing her all the museums, churches etc in Paris, thinking they were both having a lovely time.

Q3 Who has the best cultural knowledge?

Mette on the other hand couldn't care less about all that historical stuff, and was doing her best to appear interested... Somehow she managed

In our ultimate face-off, we're gonna see just how much of a gap there is between Mette and Aurélien's cultural knowledge.

Q3 Who has the best cultural knowledge?

But this time we'll test their knowledge of historical buildings in Copenhagen, instead of voting. Who will win...

The one who loves culture, reading books, and visiting historical buildings based on an genuine interest?

Or Mette who is born and raised in Denmark? Please vote.

Q3 Who has the best cultural knowledge?

Mette and Aurélien, we will now show you some pictures of buildings in Copenhagen.

If you know the building by name, raise your hands quickly and you'll get a point if you're correct.

Q3 Who has the best cultural knowledge?

And the winner is....

Mette & Aurélien... Thank you for being who you are... present, loving people as well as the most amazing parents.

And Mette, thank you for always being there... For always having time to listen, be supportive and for always being there to provide a different and valuable perspective on things.

WE LOVE YOU!!!!
